

THE STORY OF
PETER + THE WOLF

ONCE UPON A TIME...

There was a boy named peter who lived with his grandfather in the woods.

Grandfather does not want Peter going too far from their cabin because there are wolves around.

One day, Peter leaves the garden and sees a duck swimming in the pond. The duck is arguing with a little bird!

Peter sees a cat sneaking around the tree, waiting to pounce on the bird. Peter shouts out a warning, and the bird flies up into a tree.

Grandfather sees that Peter has gone too far from their cabin, and comes outside to scold Peter. He warns Peter that the wolf might be lurking about. They go back into the garden and Grandfather locks the gate.

"DON'T GO TOO FAR!"

In the distance, the Wolf appears. He stalks the duck and swallows her in one gulp.

He begins to circle the cat and the bird hungrily, but they escape to the tree. Peter makes a plan to catch the Wolf..

Peter gets the bird in on his plan. The bird distracts the Wolf, while Peter makes a rope and climbs over the garden wall into a tree.

Peter lowers the noose from the tree, catching the Wolf by his tail as a group of hunters in the woods are passing through.

Peter begs the hunters not to kill the wolf, but bring him to the zoo instead.

He leads a victory parade through the town and to the zoo as the whole town celebrates.

The duck can be heard quacking in the Wolf's stomach.

